Fall 2010 Newsletter

You are cordially invited to join us for our 3rd Annual Charity Golf Tournament.

All proceeds go to benefit:

REINS Therapeutic Riding Program.

See the enclosed brochure for more information.

You have the opportunity to be involved in supporting this charity even if you don't golf. Please join us at the banquet or by donating towards the purchase of one of our baskets displayed at the store. The baskets will be donated to REINS in the name of all who contributed. We will then raffle them off at the banquet. You don't have to be present at the event to be a part of this worthwhile occasion. You can give any amount towards the baskets that you are comfortable with. Your name will be displayed on the basket during the banquet raffle.

Go Paperless & Recycle Your Shoes!

We have a barrel just inside the door at the shop for you to dump your old shoes. Please help keep them out of the landfill. We'll donate them to artists, welders, schools, and anyone that can re-use them. Every little bit counts.

Let us know if you would like to receive your receipts and newsletters via email. It's easy, just give us a call or send us an email.

Old MacDonald

Two redneck college football players were taking an important final exam. If they failed, they would be on academic probation and not allowed to play in the State game the following week. The exam was fill-in-the-blank. The last question read, "Old MacDonald had a _____." Bubba was stumped. He had no idea what to answer. But he knew he needed to get this one right to be sure he passed.

Making sure the professor wasn't watching, he tapped Tiny on the shoulder. "Pssst. Tiny. What's the answer to the last question?" Tiny laughed. He looked around to make sure the professor hadn't noticed, then he turned to Bubba. "Bubba, you're so stupid. Everyone knows Old MacDonald had a FARM."

"Oh yeah," said Bubba. "I remember now." He picked up his No. 2 pencil and started to write the answer in the blank. He stopped. Tapping Tiny's shoulder again, he whispered, "Tiny, how do you spell farm?"

"You are really dumb, Bubba. That's so easy. Farm is spelled E-I-E-I-O."
